Matilda's childhood

Fill in the blanks:

At the age of 2 Matilda had already learnt what most people learn in their early _____, how to _____ of herself. Then she developed a sense of _____. At the age of 4 she had read every magazine/newspaper in the house, so she went to the _____ to read books.

The library was ___ blocks away. She went as soon as her mother went to bingo/work. Her father didn't want her to go to _____. He wanted her to stay home to do the housework/sign for packages.

Books sent Matilda a comforting message. What was it?

"Y__ a__ n__ al__."

Which of the following things does Matilda do?

Put glue in her father's hat

Put sawdust in the engines of her father's cars

Replace her father's hair oil with peroxide

Make the door slam in her father's face

Put a newt in Miss Trunchbull's drinking water

Make the tv explode

Recuperate Miss Honey's doll

Quotes

Who says the following:

'There's nothing you can get from a book that you can't get from Tv faster.'

---

'All those authors who had set their books out into the world like ships onto the sea.'

---

'I'm smart, you're dumb; I'm big, you're little; I'm right, you're wrong; and there's nothing you can do about it.'

_____ and _____

'A girl does not get anywhere by acting intelligent.'

---

'Whoever painted the Trunchbull must have had a strong stomach.'
